

Teresa Richert
Composer, Clinician

Presentations and Workshops

Presented and performed works by Red Leaf Pianoworks composers at the MTNA/CFMTA conference in Baltimore with Joanne Bender, Martha Hill Duncan, and Susan Griesdale (2017) and the MTNA conference in Orlando with Martha Hill Duncan and Rebecca Maxner (2018).

Presented a session entitled "Demystifying the Score" at the CFMTA Conference in Richmond, BC, July 2015 with Martha Hill Duncan. Performed several solos and ensembles by composers of Red Leaf Pianoworks.

Guest host at the Canadian National Conservatory of Music's Summer Sizzle (Yorkton, Saskatchewan, August 2014, Mount Forest, Ontario, July 2012). Presented a session entitled "Liven Up Your Studio" to over 50 teachers. Performed Soaring Seagulls from the Northern Lights books at the gala. Led students in the development of group compositions.

Composition workshops for BCRMTA groups in Campbell River, Coquitlam, Maple Ridge (Fall 2013), North Vancouver, Port Coquitlam (Spring 2014), Abbotsford (2015), Vancouver STA and Richmond (2016).

Long & McQuade teacher workshops with Martha Hill Duncan in Victoria, Port Coquitlam, and Vancouver (April 2012) and with Irene Voros (November 2014). Presented and performed several original compositions by Red Leaf Pianoworks composers.

CFMTA Conference, Regina (July, 2011). Presented composition sessions for teachers and students which included the performance of several original compositions.

BC Conservatory of Music Horizons Conservatory Series Official Launch at Long & McQuade Music, Vancouver, Tom Lee Music (Richmond and Langley, October 2010). Presented and performed several original compositions included in the new series of books.