Terms of Use for Digital Products
Teresa Richert Compositions for Piano

E-Piece: Sent by email, this purchase entitles the purchaser to maintain one digital copy and one printed copy of the piece for personal use (or for teachers, one printed copy for the use of only one student at any given time.) For piano duets, one printed copy of the full score for each student performer is permitted for one piece at a time only. Teachers are encouraged to have students purchase their own PDF of the book or individual piece(s) they are learning so that students can retain a legal copy indefinitely. The E-piece is not transferable.

E-Book: Sent by email, this purchase entitles the purchaser to maintain one digital copy and one printed copy of the book for personal use (or for teachers, one printed copy for the use of only one student at any given time.) For piano duets or trios, one printed copy of the full score for each student performer is permitted for one piece at a time only. Teachers are encouraged to have students purchase their own PDF of the book or individual piece(s) they are learning so that students can retain a legal copy indefinitely. The E-book is not transferable.

Studio E-book License: Sent by email, this license entitles teachers to reproduce the digital material solely for their personal use and that of their students. Students of the teacher holding the license are entitled to maintain one copy of the book or excerpt from it for their own use only. For studio e-book license privileges, the student needs to purchase his/her own studio license. This license is not transferable (even to teachers or students within the same studio.)

* * * * *

These digital products are legal versions only when accompanied by a valid receipt. You do not have permission to create electronic or paper copies books or pieces or any excerpts from them for the purposes of sale or distribution.

Additional copies for adjudication and/or competition purposes are allowed without prior consent provided that those copies are returned or destroyed after the event.